

TOMORROW

When it comes, I will go
I've got nothing left to lose
If it hurts, I will cry
I've got nothing left to prove
It might do me in, but I'll just begin
Again tomorrow

When it rains, I will run
Then I'll try to hide my shame
If it snows, so it goes
I'll warm myself by your flame
It might do me in, but I'll just begin
Again tomorrow

If I lose my way and waste a day
If I stumble and fall and have to crawl
No matter what I do, I'll make it up to you
Tomorrow

If I fear, it will show
I can't make it go away
If I'm cut, I will bleed
My bloods a small price to pay
It might do me in, but I'll just begin
Again tomorrow

If you push, I will fall
But I'll take it in stride
If I beg, will you stay
While I choke on my pride
It might do me in, but I'll just begin
Again tomorrow
