

YOU DARLIN'

Packed my bags, never said goodbye
It was easier to leave than live a lie
Hit the road, but it hit back
Got no consideration for the traits we lack

Spent my 40 years wandering lost
Like the Israelites I've been double crossed
Spent my time searching for the promised land
But it stayed out of reach due to slight of hand

Don't know why my Red Sea parted
Just got tired of being broken hearted
Like the hazy dreams at the edge of the night
That fade away at the morning light

You Darlin', you're the one
I'm your moon and you're my sun
Without you I can't shine
Say you'll be forever mine
(2x)

YOU DARLIN' (cont.)

Tried being strong, but it didn't work
Tried being sneaky, but I felt like a jerk
I've been searching, for so damn long
Tryin' to figure out where I went wrong

Crippled expression, stuck for a phrase
Talkin' to strangers and lost in a daze
I was hardly coherent when you came by Prayin' that someone might give me a try

You let me swim away from my tears
Escape the riptide of my fears
Let me cradle you in my dreams
And separate the truth from what it seems

You Darlin', you're the one
I'm your moon and you're my sun
Without you I can't shine
Say you'll be forever mine
(2x)
